

Math 201

Section 3.1 Implicit Differentiation

We will say that a given equation in x and y defines the function f implicitly if the graph of $y = f(x)$ coincides with a portion of the graph of the equation.