

CSCI 476 Project Participation RubricName: _____

Project participation grade: 10% of the individual's grade. Grade is based on the components shown in the table below. Each student must present evidence of his/her participation in the project.

See the project description for explanation of each of these components.

Components required	Above expectations	Meets expectations	Below expectations
Project Time Log Due at the end of the course. Each individual student shall turn in their Project Time Log. Must include a signed statement that the timeline is an accurate representation of your work.	Entries document what was done and the amount of time spent for most of the work on the project. There is sufficient detail for future reference. 30 points	Entries document what was done and the amount of time spent for some of the work on the project. There is adequate detail for future reference. 22 points	Entries document what was done and the amount of time spent for very little of the work on the project. Minimal to no detail given. 0 - 15 points
Team Participation Determined by professor and peer evaluations	Demonstrated a high level of participation in creating the final project. 25 points	Demonstrated an average level of participation in creating the final project. 18 points	Little to no demonstration of participation in creating the final project. 0 - 12 points
Communication Determined by professor and peer evaluations	All communication with teammates and the professor was done in a timely manner and was clear. 25 points	Most communication was done on time and was clear. Most meetings were attended. 18 points	There was minimal communication with the team or communication was not clear. 0 - 12 points
Ability of team member to work in a team: Determined by peer evaluations	Teammates judged your participation as very effective. 20 points	Teammates judged your participation as good. 14 points	Teammates judged your participation as very poor. 0 - 9 points