Medieval Costume

We hope you enjoy the presentation! These are the books that we found to be useful for the project. Several were referenced and some were scanned for the images that were integrated into the Power Point.

Also, the class texts The World of the Luttrell Psalter and Bishop's The Middle Ages were used.

Some helpful websites if you're interested in reading further or looking at pretty stuff:

http://jessamynscloset.com/13thcbasic.html

http://www.virtue.to/articles/margaret.html

http://www.distaff.org/mct.shtml

http://www.r3.org/life/articles/codpiece.html (You know you want to read about codpieces...)

http://www.bl.uk/ (Luttrell Psalter, but they have a few pieces of jewelry as well.)

http://www.virtue.to/articles/extant.html (Awesome surviving garments. An older website but worth using as a stepping-off point.)

http://medieval.webcon.net.au/extant_holy_roman_tunicella.html http://www.costumes.org/history/100pages/timelinepages/15thcent1.htm

http://www.personal.utulsa.edu/~marc-carlson/shoe/SHOEHOM1.HTM

http://www.wga.hu/art/w/weyden/rogier/16portra/02lady.jpg (The lady in the wimple.)

http://www.uvm.edu/~hag/sca/15th/index.html (This is the origin site for the image above. Chock full of Medieval lovelies!)