Essay

Considering the world from the view of an ancient Greek, compose an essay in support of a claim concerning the rational order of our world: is it a rational world or not, and to what extent? You will need a thesis asserting the degree of world rationality. Support this thesis with material from our Greeks. Consider likely counter-arguments to your position and its support again from the Greeks.

Requirements

You must include reference to figures from each of the five “periods” of the course:

- pre-philosophical
- pre-Socratic
- Socrates and/or Plato
- Aristotle
- Sophocles and/or Nietzsche

Minimum 1500 words, Maximum 3000

Be sure to use correct in-text citation format, as specified on our website.
